The Center for Excellence in Education (CEE) values and respects its donors' privacy. It affirms that its fundraising practices protect against unauthorized use of its contributor lists. CEE does not sell or rent personal information to individuals, companies, or other organizations.

The Center does not share donors' personal or contact information with any third party organizations for purposes of solicitation. CEE does, however, use third-party vendors to facilitate the processing of donations made via credit card through www.cee.org. This third-party vendor complies with all security commerce guidelines and regulations to ensure the integrity and security of proprietary information. CEE does not authorize vendors to sell or share personal information.

For purposes of individual donor acknowledgement, CEE uses donor names, contact information and donation amounts for internal purposes only. It maintains appropriate security measures to keep this information private. CEE strives to ensure that all donors receive appropriate acknowledgment in an orderly, timely and effective manner.

If an email address or other personal information (excluding financial information) is provided by an individual when visiting CEE's website, this information may be entered into a database for purposes of providing information about CEE programs and events, and possibly for requesting a contribution. Communication from CEE can be canceled at any time.
